

SPORTS

Rockne Predicts Toughest Game Of Many Seasons as Notre Dame Leaves for West Point Gridiron

"Odds Against Us But We Are Not Beaten," Is Last Prediction of the Miracle Man as 32 Huskies Climb on Train Ready to Show Worth.

Standing on the station platform just as the train arrived to carry him and his football squad to West Point, Coach Rockne of Notre Dame said that he expected Saturday's game to be one of the most bitterly fought contests that any Notre Dame team has engaged in. "We are going east with odds against us," he said, "the whole country is waiting for Notre Dame to be defeated. I know that West Point is generally considered to have the better team, but I know that they are confident of victory. I know, too, what my men can do for I've been working with them all season, and I'll tell the world that no other team of players could be found. West Point may beat us, but she'll have to play real football to do it. We may not have the best team in the universe, but we haven't got a bad one, either. Don't be confident of victory, but remember that no N. D. team has ever been licked before the game started."

The entire squad of thirty-two men left sharing the sentiments. There was an air of confidence about them—confidence that they would play good football Saturday, and that in spite of the eastern predictions West Point is to have the toughest sort of time defeating them. No man went east feeling that Notre Dame was to have an easy game, but neither did any member of the squad leave fearing defeat. The men realize that by winning Saturday they will surprise the whole sporting world, but they are determined to do just that.

"We've licked them before when we were not expected to," said Captain Eddie Anderson, "we can do it again."

West Point is teeming with confidence. Not since the days of the mighty Oliphant, have the Cadets felt so sure about the annual game with the Rockers. The fact that the entire team has been in the college since the summer, and that they have been with a defeated team, may have something to do with the general confidence that prevails on the Plains. Most of it, however, is due to the fact with which the Cadets team has been received in the columns of the Eastern Press. The notices which hail French, Wood and Breidner as All-American linemen, have given the soldiers unlimited confidence in their team.

WABASH TO HAVE BIG HOME COMING

Little Giants to Meet James Millikin Football Team in Big Event.

Wabash college is preparing for the largest Home-Coming in its history next Friday and Saturday. The big event comes Saturday afternoon when the "strong James Millikin football team meets the Little Giants in one of the hardest games on the Wabash schedule. Millikin has not been defeated for years and on dope should be considered stronger than the Scarlets.

A great crowd of old grads have already sent word they will be on hand to pull for Wabash in the big game. Coach Vaughan is working the Little Giants to the limit in preparation and the team should present its full strength against the invaders. The hard fought Butler game resulted in only minor injuries, except to Burns, whose injured shoulder will keep him on the sidelines the rest of the season. Johnson is also out with a broken collarbone but there are several good men fighting for a chance to fill the vacancies.

Wellesley College Girls in Annual Class Rowing Regatta
WELLESLEY, Mass., Nov. 3.—The young women of Wellesley college went to the river Thursday for the annual regatta to decide the class crew championship. The teams were of skill in rowing, rather than of speed. Senior, junior and sophomore crews were matched in the principal event and two freshmen eights contested for selection as the class crew. The captains of the upper class crews were: senior, Alice Richards; sophomore, N. Y. Junior, Elizabeth Haste; Freshman, N. J. and sophomore Margaret Nichols, Elkhart, Ind.

Harvard Leaves for Big Game With Tigers
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 3.—Harvard's football squad, 40 men strong, left Thursday afternoon for Princeton, hopeful that on Saturday the Tiger would be daunted with crimson stripes as the result of their visit to the Palmer stadium. The party, in charge of Head Coach Robert T. Fisher, spent tonight in New York and will proceed to Princeton tomorrow.

Ruth, Meusel and Piercy Go Without Series Coin
CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Babe Ruth's share of the world series receipts, together with the shares of Bob Meusel and William Piercy, who accompanied Ruth on the barnstorming jaunt through warm territory were violating baseball rules, remains unpaid, it was learned today. Distribution of the players share of the series purse is directed by the commissioner, Judge Landis. When Landis learned of Ruth's expedition tour in defiance of rules it is said, he sent word to the owners of the Yankees team of his intention to hold up the offender's shares and this report, it is said, might have caused Ruth to abandon his tour.

Ruth, Meusel and Piercy each have a claim for $3,262.26.

GEDEON PLACED ON INELIGIBLE SHEET

Judge Landis Places Former St. Louis Infielder Among Released Players.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Joe Gedeon, former infielder of the St. Louis American league club, was placed on the ineligible list Thursday by Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, commissioner of baseball.

The action followed a telegram from William McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast league, to Judge Landis, inquiring about the status of Gedeon, who was scheduled to participate in a game on the coast in which a number of coast league players were to take part.

Judge Landis replied telling McCarthy to advise his players not to participate in any games in which Gedeon appeared.

Gedeon was given his unconditional release by Pres't Phil Ball, of the St. Louis Americans shortly after he had appeared before the Cook county grand jury and testified regarding the alleged throwing of the world series of 1919 by certain members of the Chicago White Sox to the Cincinnati Nationals. During last season Gedeon did not appear in any organized baseball games.

Gedeon was not indicted in connection with the 1919 world series scandal but was said to have told the jurors that he had information relating to the alleged throwing of the series and that he had informed some of his friends. He also was said to have been present during discussions of the alleged conspiracy.

None of the indicted players who were later acquitted by a jury in criminal court here has made application to Judge Landis for reinstatement in organized baseball, and the action of the commissioner in the case of Gedeon was looked upon here tonight as setting a possible precedent for action if reinstatement is requested by them.

Football Game Mild Form Of Diversion, Says Warren

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 3.—Pres't Harding's reception in Atlanta and other cities on his recent visit to the south made him feel "that a football game would be rather a mild form of diversion compared to the strenuousness of being received and welcomed in your part of the country," he wrote Mayor James L. Key of Atlanta, in a letter received Thursday. The latter's trip to New York to witness the Georgia Tech-Penn State football game prevented his presence here on the occasion of the president's visit.

The president wrote: "On the whole I am inclined to think that you made a wise selection in attending a football game instead of participating in the tumultuous hostilities at Atlanta and other parts of the south extended to us. In fact I came home with the feeling that a football game would be a rather mild form of diversion compared to the strenuousness of being received and welcomed in your part of the country. I cannot tell you how delighted we all were with the trip south and how proud I am to have been accorded the reception which was tendered by your splendid city."

BENDERS SWITCH BACKFIELD FOUR IN BIG PRACTICE

Second Team Line Works With First Team Backfield to Provide Opposition.

The South Bend High school football clash with Nicholas Senn school of Chicago was clinched yesterday afternoon when the signed contract of the football officials of the Windy City institution arrived at the local high school mentor's office.

For a long while the game has been pending but the final decision in the matter was not verified until yesterday. This game is regarded as a chance for the local eleven to redeem itself for the defeats received at the hands of Gary and Clinton. Burnham does not seem satisfied with the competition furnished by the second team and switched his premier backfield over to the second string aggregation. This makes them play against the first team line. The opposition is much stronger and the result yesterday was that only once did the best Bender backfield cross the opposition goal posts.

Kisinski received a twisted shoulder a week or so ago and has been used sparingly in the daily sessions to enable him to get in shape for Saturday. With Capt. Edwards running the team, Buntman at fullback and Butch and Nykos at left half-back and gives respectively, using the different plays learned this week the Bender scoring machine is a much improved one over the one of a few weeks ago. Sabo and Voedisch, on account of injuries are on the field every night and are not allowing themselves to become rusty on signals. Neither one will be seen in action Saturday unless the coach does make a last minute shift in his plans.

The Other Hand

There's no use trying to be a successful fighter nowadays; you can't start up a saloon anywhere.

That famous team, Landis and Ruth, is rehearsing for a song and dance.

Suppose when the New York Boxing Commission gets through fixing everything up a fellow will be able to find a place to park his car.

As Referee Jimmy Gardner says: "A man may be down, but he's never out."

Miss Lines of England ran 100 yards in 11 4-5 seconds and was then half an hour late for dinner.

Wait'll Ruth gets his 14 points.

Somebody has offered $140,000 for Gibbons and Dempsey to get together. That's a good line for Jack's act.

I go me to a rassin' match. To celebrate a nice night. One got together on the floor and squeezed with all his might.

He held him and he held him 'Til the match got four hours old. The referee then covered 'em 'For fear they would catch cold.

The new Willard-Dempsey articles read like a second mortgage.

Jess is always strikin' oil somewhere.

Centre College has 300 students and "Bo" McMillin.

Last March, Pres't Harding said, "When I get a presentable golf score, I will personally cast it to the world."

That was last March.

It's rather suspicious the way a golfer continues to tell tales at the 19th hole on ice cream sodas.

Somebody ought to wipe up these prize fighters that rassin' rules ain't got nothin' to do with prize fightin'.

The guy who took the roughness out of rassin' must have just come from a prize fight.

Disarmament would end the shipwrecks and where would our prize fighters work during the next war?

Tex Rickard is putting on a boxing show every Friday night at Madison Square Garden.

Ninety-nine heads are funnier than one.

SOME BOOT. He took the football in his hands. To show them what was what. He kicked and missed and then got hissed.

He showed them what was not.

AN ECLIPSE. He surely was a football star. The coach was glad he found him. And when he landed in the mud, The stars were all around him.

OLIPHANT WITH NEW YORK. NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Lieut. Elmer Oliphant, famous West Point football player of a few years ago, will lead the New York basketball team this season. Oliphant is considered one of the most capable forwards in the east.

CHEER TEAM. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 3.—Harvard's student body swarmed into the stadium Thursday to cheer its football eleven's final signal practice before departure today of the Crimson squad for the Tiger town.

CHANGE CAMP. BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The Boston Nationals will not return to Galveston, Tex., as training grounds this spring. An excess of moisture at Galveston was one of the reasons responsible for decision to change. Manager Fred Mitchell said.

Princeton Tiger Different Feline Against Harvard

From Sorry Looking Cat, Orange and Black Mascot Changes to Dangerous

BY JACK VELOCK
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Two weeks ago the Princeton Tiger was a sorry looking feline. Now he is a cat of a different complexion and nobody realizes this any better than Bob Fisher, head coach at Harvard. Fisher lead a squad of 41 players New York Thursday afternoon on the first leg of their march toward the Tigers lair, and was apprehensive regarding the outcome of Saturday's game and not without cause.

If Centre college could sneak up on the crimson as it did last Saturday, when it might not Princeton do? The Tigers, despite a drubbing received at the hands of the navy and Chicago, may be an altogether different football team against Harvard.

As a result of his tears for the big crimson steam roller that sometimes failed to get up as much steam as expected, Fisher has switched his line-up again. Henry Clarke, the 168 pound snapper back, who had the center position sewed up until Wednesday, Coach Fisher has moved Charley Tierney from right tackle to the center of the line, replacing Tierney with Al Ladd. This was done because Fisher was afraid his rush line lacked enough poundage in the middle to withstand the driving power of the Tigers.

Princeton, incidentally will have its strongest lineup in Saturday's game. All of the regulars, including Don Lourie, who will start at quarter back, Hank Garrity, Stanley Keck, Elroy and Cleaves will be in there to chew up Crimson jerseys and it will be no surprise to this writer should Princeton succeed in defeating Harvard for the first time since 1911.

Willard Is Serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

BRENNAN SHOWS HE CAN FIGHT BUT WILL NEVER BE CHAMPION

Willard Serious About Fight With Dempsey and Should Give Better Exhibition.

BY JAMES L. KELLY
News-Times (Sports Editor)
Dan O'Dowd showed his real worth when he stayed the limit in his bout with Wild Bill Brennan the other night. O'Dowd as we have always claimed is a good boy for receiving punishment, a weak offensive battler and a third rate heavyweight.

Bill Brennan is a second rater himself. Another bear for punishment, he has time and again gained notice by staying in the ring with a fast battler for a lengthy period. The time he stayed with Dempsey showed that he had a certain knack for which he must be given credit.

Against an outstanding dub, such as Fred Fulton, Brennan would be a good fighter, but a match with a boy with the combined speed, ability and clutch power of Tommy Gibbons he would look poor indeed.

Will Start Downward. O'Dowd is at his best right now. He will never be any better and it is highly possible that he will be much worse in a short while. Every time a fighter gets a terrible blow on the ribs or heart, something is bound to go; constant tapping will wear away stone, and constant rapping on the body of a pug will begin to show no matter how tough or rugged that battler may be.

Brennan is even slipping a little bit. He'll never make a champion, but for a while he will stick up among the second raters and give the boys a fast go.

The logic bout at the present moment is one between Tommy Gibbons the only heavyweight eligible for a bout with Jack Dempsey and Harry Greb, a light heavyweight who is perhaps the classiest of all the mit artists today.

White Gibbons might deliver that high explosive to the chin of the redoubtable Harry early in the fighting fans would soon understand that the publicity given Tommy Gibbons was not pure "bunk" and that he was a fighter from start to finish.

Willard Is Serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Willard is serious. Willard is anxious for a fight with Jack Dempsey. He is very serious and unlike every other battler today, he doesn't appear to want the fight because of the abundance of cold cash that such a match would bring to him.

Willard is rich, real business, in oil and cattle has made him a multi-millionaire. All rumors about his badly bent bank account seem very far fetched and he doesn't need a championship fight to put him in finance again.

He would have a hard time winning the crown from the head of Dempsey but he would give a much better exhibition than the one at Toledo. The Toledo fight has all ways been a farce in the minds of many sport followers. Dempsey would not find an overconfident, untrained opponent in the ring with him if he again took on the old but same Jess Willard.

Frankie Mason Kn